

Privacy Policy

Effective Date: 8/21/2024

1. Introduction

Welcome to the Girl Coalition of Indiana ("we," "us," or "our"). We are committed to protecting your privacy and ensuring that your personal information is handled in a safe and responsible manner. This Privacy Policy outlines how we collect, use, and protect your information when you visit our website.

2. Information We Collect

We may collect the following types of information:

- Personal Information: Information that identifies you personally, such as your name, email address, phone number, and any other information you provide to us voluntarily.
- Non-Personal Information: Information that does not identify you personally, including but not limited to your IP address, browser type, operating system, and browsing behavior.

3. How We Use Your Information

We use the information we collect for the following purposes:

- To provide and maintain our website
- To improve our website and services
- To respond to your inquiries and provide customer support
- To send you newsletters, updates, and other communications
- To analyze website usage and trends

4. Information Sharing and Disclosure

We do not sell, trade, or otherwise transfer your personal information to outside parties except as described below:

- Service Providers: We may share your information with third-party service providers who assist us in operating our website and conducting our business.
- Legal Requirements: We may disclose your information if required to do so by law or in response to a valid legal request.

5. Data Security

We implement appropriate security measures to protect your personal information from unauthorized access, alteration, disclosure, or destruction. However, no method of transmission over the Internet or method of electronic storage is 100% secure, and we cannot guarantee absolute security.

6. Your Rights

You have the right to:

- Access the personal information we hold about you
- Request correction of any inaccurate information
